THE ENGAGEMENT RING IS ON THE FINGER, THE DATE IS SET...
NOW, WHERE TO HOLD THIS MOMENTOUS OCCASION!

BY ELIZABETH BROYHILL

We have entered a new era of wedding ceremonies and celebrations that go beyond your basic church and country club or reception hall standards. While those traditional locations can be the site of a glorious wedding, many brides want unique and different venues.

While destination weddings are certainly a trend, it is also possible to create a “destination wedding” right in Middle Tennessee without having the wedding party and guests fly to an exotic location. It is simply a matter of getting creative and thinking outside the box to find the perfect wedding and reception venue for you and your groom.
